She was born January 24, 1882, in Buysville, daughter of Lawrence and Caroline Bjorkman Anderson. Luella died June 22, 1933. Zed, as he was called, died November 8, 1961, on the Salt Lake Temple grounds, where he was a temple worker four years.

Zadock Allen Bethers attended school at Center Creek. When 7 or 8 years old he accompanied his father to Salt Lake City with a wagon load of lumber as their donation to the building of the Salt Lake Temple. Young Zadock worked with his eight brothers on the first threshing machine brought into the valley by his father to provide work for his nine sons.

In 1903 he was called to fill a mission to the Southern States. Prior to this time he attended BYU. He spent two and one-half years in the mission field without purse or script. Often he walked 30 miles a day.

When he arrived home he worked six years for the Silver King Mining Co., in
